CONTENTS OF VOLUME XXXV

1. The Relative Efficiency of Single Versus Multiple Exposures in the Rapid Memorization of Visual Forms. By L. C. Steckle. 1
2. New Genera of Pennsylvanian Crinoids from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. By Raymond C. Moore ..... 32
3. Relationships of the Family Allagecrinidae, with Description of New Species from Pennsylvanian Rocks of Oklahoma and Missouri. By Raymond C. Moore ..... 55
4. Gas Amplification of Photo-electric Currents for High Values of $E/P$. By Neil Edward Handel ..... 139
5. Caney Conodonts of Upper Mississippian Age. By E. B. Branson and M. G. Mehl ..... 167
6. Conodonts from the Keokuk Formation. By E. B. Branson and M. G. Mehl ..... 179
7. A Record of Typical American Conodont Genera in Various Parts of Europe. By E. B. Branson and M. G. Mehl ..... 189
8. The Recognition and Interpretation of Mixed Conodont Faunas. By E. B. Branson and M. G. Mehl ..... 195

Report of the Permanent Secretary of the Denison Scientific Association ..... 210

Subject and Author Index ..... 218